Celebrate the Year of the Horse with this 1oz minted bar, crafted from 99.99% pure gold, combining cultural significance with investment value.

In Chinese astrology, each of the twelve zodiac animals is believed to bestow its defining traits to individuals born during its designated year. The Horse, seventh in the zodiac cycle, symbolizes vitality, speed, and perseverance. People born in Horse years—such as 2026, 2014, 2002, 1990, and every 12th preceding year, are traditionally seen as energetic, independent, and charismatic, often possessing a natural charm and a love for adventure.

This carefully crafted pure gold minted bar features a minted impression of a majestic galloping horse. Included in the design is the inscription ‘HORSE’ and the Chinese character for ‘Horse’. The back of the bar is stamped with The Perth Mint’s London Bullion Market Association registered mark, a stylised swan symbolising our 125 year-old reputation for quality. The logo and the bar’s weight and fineness appear on the same background pattern.

Authentication feature

The minted bar incorporates authentication features. In the form of multiple micro-laser engraved letters, they are only detectable under a magnifying glass.

Tamper-evident packaging

This minted bar is housed in tamper-evident packaging which will display the word VOID around the edge of the blister if the card has been prized open. The card is red-coloured with plum blossoms, signifying blessings and resilience.
