

THE ROYAL MINT®
THE ORIGINAL MAKER

James Bond

One Ounce Gold Bullion Bar

In 2020, an unmistakable British icon joins The Royal Mint's bullion range as we mark the upcoming release of the latest James Bond movie, No Time To Die. Stylish gold bars, struck to The Royal Mint's bullion standard, are now available to honour the world-famous, quintessentially British spy and the sophisticated and intriguing world he represents.

An Iconic Investment

Since Bond first burst onto the silver screen in 1962, six actors, 25 films and endless gadgets have brought the intoxicating world of espionage to life and helped create an icon.

This gold bar combines the allure of precious metal with outstanding design. Together, they create an investment opportunity that will have timeless appeal.

The James Bond 2020 bar is also available in one ounce and ten-ounce silver editions, struck to bullion standard.

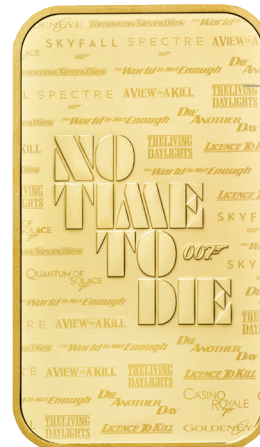

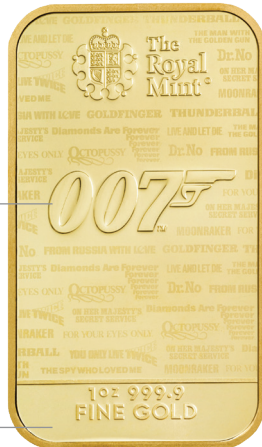

Obverse

Alloy: 999.9 Au Fine Gold
Obverse Designer: Daniel Thorne
Reverse Designer: Daniel Thorne
Quality: Bullion
Year: 2020
Packaging: Blister
Mintage: 5,000

Obverse

Reverse

The secret agent's well-known code number 007 is central to the obverse design.

A unique serial number adds extra appeal.

Titles of unforgettable Bond movies form the background.

Struck in 999.9 fine gold to bullion standard with special finishes, including frosting and polishing.

Displayed in secure 007 branded blister packaging.

Key Features

- The world's first James Bond precious metal bar
- A limited production run of 5,000 one ounce 999.9 fine gold bars
- Struck to The Royal Mint's bullion standard, with special finishes
- Displayed in secure 007 branded blister packaging
- Each bar bears a unique serial number
- An official licensed product produced in partnership with EON Productions Limited and Danjaq

