

Six Decades of 007: Bond of the 1960s

2024 BULLION COIN RANGE

Celebrate six decades of James Bond with The Royal Mint's new bullion coin collection dedicated to 007. Expertly crafted, the first coin in the collection commemorates the Bond films of the 1960s. Produced utilising more than 1,100 years of experience and tested to rigorous standards by an independent quality assurance process, the reverse of the coin features the iconic flying 'Little Nellie' seen in You Only Live Twice on its reverse and its obverse features the official coinage portrait of His Majesty King Charles III designed by Martin Jennings.

Available as both a one ounce 999.9 gold and 999 silver edition and each packaged in a single coin capsule, this coin is the latest release in The Royal Mint's collection dedicated to the six decades of James Bond in cinema.
